

Invitation to the Symposium on
Future of Survey Statistics Conference

4-5 April 2024 in Trier

Place: Trier University
Universitätsring 15
D-54296 Trier

Room: C building
HS5 (Conference)
C22 (Poster Session / Wine reception / Lunch)

A9/10 (Conference Dinner; A building)

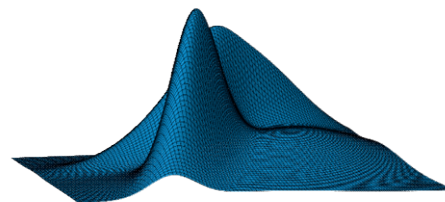

Date: 04-05 April 2024

Participant's registration

In order to access the building it is imperative that you confirm participation via e-mail to:

Ralf Münnich: muennich@uni-trier.de and Tamara Georgi-Orth: statistik@uni-trier.de preferably by 22 March 2024

Future of Survey Statistics

Thursday, April 4th

12.30 h	Opening
13.00 h	Partha Lahiri	Estimation of finite population proportions for small areas -- a statistical data integration approach
13.45 h	Domingo Morales	Zero-inflated negative binomial mixed models for predicting number of wildfires
14.30 h	Coffee break
15.00 h	Nikos Tzavidis	Topics on machine learning methods and uses of geospatial data for small area estimation
15.45 h	Katharina Schüller	The contribution of data literacy to evidence-based policy making
16.30 h	Posters and more
18.00 h	Feedback of poster session and closing of day 1
18.30 h	Conference dinner

Tentative end 21 h

Friday, April 5th

9.00 h	Li-Chun Zhang	On the roles of design-based inference in future official statistics
9.45 h	Monica Pratesi	Shaping the future of surveys in Official Statistics: from citizen data to citizen statistics
10.30 h	Coffee break
11.00 h	Natalie Shtomo	Advancing the Use of Administrative Data for Official Statistics
11.45 h	Danny Pfeffermann	Challenges in the Production of Official Statistics with New Methods of Data Collection
12.30 h	Lunch break (Imbiss)
13.30 h	Ralf Münnich	Trier survey statistics, the past, the present and the future
14.30 h	Discussion round: the future of survey statistics

Tentative end 16.00 including closing